

Babies+ & Bumps 2016

Thank you for your interest in my photography.

I offer various options resulting in beautiful children's and mother's to be photographic portraiture.

My photo shoots are fun, which means that I am able to produce relaxed and natural pictures of you and your family. I work on location at your home or a nearby place that you enjoy visiting as a family, and I incorporate all these elements into your pictures to ensure your images are unique to you. All our pictures are offered in black and white to ensure that your images are timeless, and will look as good in fifty years' time as they do today.

Below are the options available to you – please do not hesitate to contact me with any queries you may have.
